

Dr. Max Daunderer - Curriculum vitae

- 1943 born as second son to a general practitioner and a pediatrician in Landshut / Bavaria.
Married to a MD, four children.
- 1969 Medical registration and graduation
- 1970 Set up of an intensive care station for poisoned in Schwabing Hospital under Prof. Bauer.
- 1974 Ward physician haematology under prof Begemann, Schwabing.
- 1976 Specialisation in internal medicine completed.
- Assistant medical director in the toxicologic division of Klinikum rechts der Isar of TU Munich.
- 1981 Advising toxicologic first aid with professional fire brigade Munich.
- Advising doctor in Medical Emergency Service.
Kassenärztlicher Notdienst München.
- Poison control and advise service Klinikum r.d.I.
- Foundation and leading doctor of Tox Center Munich.
- Since 1981 practising as internist (including health insurance).

Habilitation as Clinical Toxicologist at Technical University Munich.

Instructions in poisoning treatment for Bundeswehr Germany.

Author of numerous Publishings on toxicology.

Among them:

Handbook of "Clinical Toxicology" (14 volumes)

Handbook of "Poisoning from Chemical Weapons"

And coauthor of "Giftliste" (5 volumes) (all in German).